Mother Nature sure pulled a bait and switch on us right before Memorial Day weekend. I hope your early plantings and trees survived the late snow, but what a beautiful follow up to that practical joke. The sun came out and all that moisture has benefited the gardens.

At this month's Curtis Park Neighbors meeting we will get an extremely anticipated update to the Neighborhood Transportation Management Program (NTMP), which was developed to address added pressure, changes, and safety in the neighborhood.

Rocky Mountain Human Services will give a short presentation to inform neighbors of the services they provide. Sunshine Home Share Colorado will give a brief explanation of their purpose and how they may be able help people in the neighborhood.

Our next guest, Laurie Tabachnick, with Parks and Rec, will give an update to the Stout Street Children's Park redesign. See more information about community engagement below.

Neighbors (cont.)

Our Sense of Place

Curtis Park is a special place to live, with all the history, culture and great neighbors that really appreciate and take care of our neighborhood. We want to grow this to continue to improve our neighborhood and really increase the sense of place. We want to share our history and pride in the neighborhood with our visitors who pass through as well. We would like to expand this with art, historical markers, and story telling.

Do you live in a house that has a good historical back-story? Do you know something about our neighborhood that should be shared and detailed for others to know? If so, please share with Curtis Park Neighbors, so we can take the next steps to highlight these important facts.
Think of the old history dating back to the origin and development of the neighborhood, and to modern history, neighborhood figures that should be highlighted. Please pass along ideas to one of you friendly and hard working board members, or send an email to the board.

Updating our Website

As a 2019 goal set by the board to increase communication, Curtis Park Neighbors is working on redesigning the Curtispark.org website. It will be our intent to create a go to place for everything Curtis Park. This revamping will increase communication and availability of information in the neighborhood, in an easy to access, comprehensive location. Keep an eye out for a poll to give your input on what important features you would like to see. Thanks to Paul Davidson for his work on this project!

Board Initiated Events/Projects

We are working on organizing some board-initiated events/projects. We are hoping to organize a neighborhood event in conjunction with the Zabiti Traveling Circus that is planning a stop at Mestizo-Curtis Park on July 27th. Stay tuned for more info on this event, which is pending permit approval. This group was the group who performed the acrobatic stunts at Mestizo Festival last summer on the garden side of the park.

Holiday Bunting

Jeff Baker

It’s time to dust off and freshen up your Holiday Bunting Flags with the 4th of July right around the corner. Again, this year we are asking neighbors to participate in decorating their homes with the bunting flags, as this lifts the energy of the neighborhood by adding a festive feeling in the air. These really fit into the historic character of the neighborhood, as they date way back to 17th century shipping flags, and have been used ever since. If you do not have yours yet, a simple Google search will bring up many affordable options with a variety of styles. Please decorate your home to help create a fun, cohesive and festive vibe in Curtis Park.

Thanks for the Help

Thanks to Ryan Cox, Paul Davidson, Robbie Hobein, Ben Mendenhall, Lindsey Sullivan for the projects you are working on, and to the rest of the board and neighbors helping to make Curtis Park better! We can always use more help! See below a small list of some of the bigger topics the Curtis Park Neighbors Board and Committees are working on. Thank you to all board

Stout St. Children’s Playground Community Engagement Kickoff!

By Laurie Tabachnick

Denver Parks & Recreation (DPR) is teaming up with the Curtis Park community to redesign and refresh the beloved 0.2 acre Stout St. Children’s Playground Park. After a brief hiatus while DPR reorganized, we are excited to announce that we are now ready to officially kick off the community engagement process. Be on the lookout for “pop-up” booths in the park throughout June, which will enable the community to speak directly with DPR staff about what they’d like to see in the redesign. The final concept design for the park is expected in late July/early August.

While you’re waiting for the pop-ups to start, we encourage all interested community members to take the Stout St. Children’s Playground survey here to start giving us input and ideas. www.surveymonkey.com/r/stoutstreetchildren.

DPR is very much looking forward to working with all of you to enhance this pocket park (with a lot of heart!). Please contact the project manager, Laurie Tabachnick, at laurie.tabachnick@denvergov.org with any questions.

Juneteenth

Jeff Baker

Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19th that Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas with the news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Juneteenth celebrates African American freedom and achievement while encouraging continuous self-development and respect for all cultures. This year, Juneteenth will be held in the Historic Five Points Neighborhood, on Welton Street, June 15th and 16th. This year’s headliner is Ashanti. Go to: www.juneteenthmusicfestival.com for more information.
